JERR-DAN HOSTS SEMINAR DURING THE 2017 BALTIMORE TOW SHOW FOCUSED ON ROTATOR CHALLENGES

Heavy-Duty Senior Sales Manager, Shane Coleman, presents solutions for rotator challenges

Hagerstown, MD (November 15, 2017) – Jerr-Dan Corporation, an Oshkosh Corporation Company (NYSE:OSK) and a single brand leader in the towing and recovery business, will be hosting a seminar exclusively focused on the many challenges faced by rotator operators in the United States. Jerr-Dan’s Heavy-Duty Senior Sales Manager, Shane Coleman, will be providing answers and solutions for these challenges at the 29th Annual American Towman Exposition in Baltimore taking place on November 17-19. The seminar will be offered on Friday, November 17 at 10:00 a.m. in room 327 at the Baltimore Convention Center.

The “Rotator Challenges” seminar aims to dissect and share the collective challenges in the industry, creating a conversation that will lead to identifying the situations most commonly confronted by rotator operators. Through industry study and the fabrication of top-notch engineering solutions, Jerr-Dan has developed a rotator line that allows the customer to optimize their investment by configuring the unit that best suits their business’s needs.

“We want to provide an opportunity to explore the rotator market, revealing current complications while complementing the discussion with clear solutions for these challenges,” said Shane Coleman, Heavy-Duty Senior Sales Manager with Jerr-Dan.

Jerr-Dan is engineered to exceed the expectations of the current rotator market, creating solutions that prove to tackle these difficulties, offering premium equipment such as the 50/60 JFB Rotator Product line, an empowering combination of heavy-duty capabilities, superior stabilizing technology, commanding rotation, unsurpassed pulling capacity and unstoppable power. In addition, Jerr-Dan provides multiple configurations efforts, complementing this configurable rotator line through a personalized and systematic way of designing and building towing equipment based on the specific performance demands of the business.

“We are determined to help rotator operators tackle the scenarios demanded in the industry today by providing industry insights,” said Coleman.

As a leading innovator in the towing and recovery industry, Jerr-Dan’s 50/60 JFB rotator configurability was engineered to tackle the demands of the every-day job. Visit the booth to learn more about the features and benefits of the JFB body and the multiple configurations available.
